Job Seekers are Offered a Free Beer and Essential Tools to Get a Job at "Dig Your Work Wednesdays" This June

Austin -

Noted Job Recruiting Firm CEO Ken Kuznia Leads Sessions to Get Noticed in Today's Marketplace

Austin, TX—Join noted recruiting pro Ken Kuznia as he brings his expertise to "Dig Your Work Wednesdays" at Lavaca Street Bar starting each Wednesday in June. Patrons will enjoy a complimentary beer and get the latest information about what employers are looking for in today's challenging job market. Each Wednesday consists of three sessions at 2, 3, and 4 pm. Sessions are free to attend and focus on different topics each Wednesday.

Dig Your Work Wednesday topics include:

- 6/3 - How to build a resume that highlights your accomplishments and separates you from the pack. (You are encouraged to bring your current resume for this session)
- 6/10 - How to interview so that you get asked back for the next interview.
- 6/17 - How to proactively find the jobs that are not online or in the newspaper.
- 6/24 – Ken combines the topics from the previous Wednesdays

After a decade of running an executive search firm, Ken will explain exactly what companies look for on a resume and during the interview process.

"Fear and a lack of information are the two biggest enemies of the job seeker...the combo literally freezes them. Dig Your Work Wednesdays provides a proven, fresh perspective to landing a job, and Lavaca Street Bar offers a relaxing and comfortable environment which allows the new information to actually soak in" explains Kuznia.

About Ken Kuznia
